Among them are [illegible] resolutions reported last session from the privileges and elections committee declaring that Senator Kellogg is not entitled to his seat, the bill to allot lands in severalty to Indians, the 5 per cent claim and the Ben Holladay bill. What will be the result of the anticipated struggle is very uncertain.

The Consular and Diplomatic Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The consular and diplomatic appropriations bill now pending in the house, contains a provision raising the consulate at Apia, Samoan Islands, from the 7th to the 5th class, with an increase of salary from $1000 to $2000 per annum. This change is recommended by the state department to make the position more desirable for men of proper capacity and standing. This consulate is considered likely to become important to our commercial interest at an early day, and there are reasons to believe that the present incumbent would already have been displaced had there been any one else of requisite ability willing to accept it at the present small pay.

The consular and diplomatic bill which could not pass the house Saturday for want of a quorum will probably be disposed of tomorrow. It is in order on the third Monday of the month for committees to ask a suspension of rules immediately after the morning hour, and it is very seldom indeed that matters brought up by committees under this order do not occupy the entire day's session. So many of both houses left town Friday and yesterday that it is rumored at hotels tonight that the sergeants-at-arms will find work on their hands as early as tomorrow mustering a quorum.

The Christiancy Case.

The divorce case of Christiancy, minister to Peru, against his wife, Lillie M. Christiancy, was taken up in the equity court today. Defendant filed a motion in opposition to the appointment of a commission to take the testimony of [illegible], who it is alleged occupied a room with Mrs. Christiancy at the St. James Hotel in this city last December. Mrs. Christiancy says that her financial condition is such as to render it impossible to attend taking depositions in New York or pay the necessary expenses of counsel.

Formal Leave Taking.

Clerks and employes of the navy department this afternoon took formal leave of Secretary Thompson.

A Consclentious Counterfeiter.

The [illegible] ordered by Brockway have arrived. Chief Drummond of the secret service department says that Brockway maintained that counterfeit money is usually made to sell. That he did not undertake any small work, that he always did work that would not affect poor people, always confining his operations to prominent banks. By so doing he said poor people were not affected as banks had sinking funds and could make their loss good.

Distribution of Standard Dollars.

For the week ending Dec. 18th 418,905 standard silver dollars were distributed. For the corresponding week in 1879 [illegible] were distributed.

Another Holiday Wanted.

Representative Page has prepared a joint resolution for introduction tomorrow. It is designed to accomplish all that can constitutionally be done by congress towards making the anniversary of the discovery of America a national holiday. Of course the power of congress in this respect is confined to the District of Columbia; but in case it is thus exercised, the example may perhaps in time be followed by state legislatures. The joint resolution is as follows:

WHEREAS, Christopher Columbus discovered America on the 12th day of October, Anno Domini 1492, and

WHEREAS, It is fitting that this event should be commemorated by appropriate recognition of its anniversary;

Therefore be it resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the United States in congress assembled, That section 993 of the revised statutes relating to the District of Columbia, and the same is hereby amended by adding to the days therein declared to be legal holidays within the District of Columbia the 12th day of October, and such day shall be a holiday for all purposes mentioned in said section.

The section referred to makes Christmas, New Years, the Fourth of July and Thanksgiving day legal holidays in the District of Columbia, the same as Sunday, and provides that commercial paper maturing on any of them shall be payable the day previous.

The Electoral Vote—Mileage of Messengers.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Messengers who brought the electoral vote of the different states have been disappointed as to the amount of mileage they receive. Heretofore it has been 25 cents per mile each way. In the last appropriation bill it was changed to 25 cents for one way only. Messengers growl at this, but there is no help. A man can travel comfortably on 12½ cents a mile. The vote of Georgia has not yet appeared by messengers, but has arrived through the mail. The vote of New York was brought by John Jacob Astor. He is entitled to about $30 mileage, but probably will not apply for it.

All Returns In.

Certificates of the electoral votes have been received by mail from every state in the union.

The Mints.

Mr. Burchard, director of the mint, will advocate before the house committee on coinage the meeting tomorrow [illegible] of melting and coinage charges. This accords with the recommendations of Secretary Sherman, who suggested in his annual report the propriety of [illegible] melting charge in all cases of deposits of bullion either for coins or refining.

Postmaster Appointed.

Mrs. Mary [illegible] Blackwell has been appointed postmaster at Alvord, Grant county, Oregon.

Bill Affecting Bank Taxation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Representative Morton will tomorrow introduce in the house a bill for the repeal of the tax on bank checks, bank capital in excess of the amount held in government bonds, and bank deposits.

Garfield's Health.

A gentleman just from Mentor says that Gen. Garfield is in plain condition, that he was overrun and overworked, and as Richard Smith said, had brought on indigestion, but had now gotten rid of [illegible]. His visitors have fallen off owing to bad weather.

A Successful Contestant.

San [illegible], contestant in the first south Carolina district and prominent in politics here, has filed his papers and their allegations are established. He will oust the sitting member Richardson, democrat.

Sherman and the Proposed Bond.

There is no truth in the report that Secretary Sherman is opposed to the 3 per cent bond. He favors the lowest possible rate at which the entire [illegible] outstanding can be refunded. At any rate he will not oppose any law congress may pass.

ENGLISH AND IRISH AFFAIRS.

British Authority only a Name in the Green Isle.

Poverty Stricken Irish Refugees Seeking Shelter in London—The English People Indifferent.

Prospects of a Land League Demonstration in London.

Prospects of Land Agitation in England and of a Struggle between the Gentry and the People, Etc.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The [illegible] [illegible] league whose decrees are now promulgated in open day, executed with promptitude and vigor and respected implicitly. The [illegible] [illegible] are now [illegible] ment Ireland is a part of the United Kingdom [illegible] [illegible] Ireland. The movement of troops [illegible] Spectator this week says that if necessary the government [illegible] week, merely by calling out the reserves and [illegible] lodging the militia, but the soldiers [illegible] protection against sentences of the land league [illegible] they have no power to act except [illegible] insurrection. The constabulary are [illegible] tirely powerless. London meanwhile is getting full of Irish refugees and today a lady writes to the papers begging that some vacant sheds in the South Kensington museum may be set apart for the use of her fellow exiles. There is not so much exaggeration in this request as your readers may think, because these people arrived in London without money or friends and wander about the streets of this great strange city utterly destitute. Families that were comfortably off or even rich three months ago are now in actual poverty. I learn from the very best authority that all the statements in today's London papers regarding the intention of the government to suspend the [illegible] of the writ of habeas corpus, or to proclaim martial law on the assembling of parliament three weeks hence, are wholly without foundation. No measures for the restoration of law and order have as yet been decided upon. Of this you may rest assured. The representatives of the radical element in the cabinet are absolutely supreme and they seem determined to let events take their course. [illegible] and the London papers there is, as the [illegible] continually, a great outcry against the inaction of the government, but it at least seems that the country at large does not care and is not very deeply moved. The radicals everywhere [illegible] that the present events in Ireland are but a prelude to a similar successful agitation against the landlords in England. Already numerous committees are quietly being formed in [illegible] the land league and demands are springing up on all [illegible] for lower rents and the right of purchase after a certain occupancy. The land question began in England at the moment of its greatest [illegible] and. The working classes are favorable to it and this week every mention of Gladstone's name at public meetings has been received with [illegible] and [illegible] there—an unmistakable indication of the feeling of the masses. I may add that in the coming struggle of gentry against the people the former cannot even count on the tradesmen, for these last, once their warmest allies, are now bitterly exasperated against them owing to the establishment of co-operative stores, which has so eaten into the business and profits of the British shopkeepers [illegible] altogether as you can see the situation is extremely [illegible] for property interests, and English [illegible] seems likely to become the least safe as hitherto it has been the most coveted of investments.

The queen went to Osborne House, in the Isle of Wight, today. Gladstone was received at Windsor Castle on Thursday, and, it is to be hoped, satisfied the royal entertainer that Ireland was still under her rule. I hear that many appeals have been made to her majesty from Irish ladies, but of course she is unable to do anything in the matter. It is said that during the holidays the land league [illegible] the English people a convincing proof of the power and secrecy of their organization will strike a start [illegible] blow in the heart of London itself. It is certain that the authorities at Scotland Yard have received some alarming intelligence on this point. This is kept as secret as possible. [illegible] the fact [illegible] it is so large a city it is necessarily difficult to guard against danger, and especially an unknown danger, and the people, remembering the [illegible] Clerkenwell explosion of Dec. 13, 1867, are naturally nervous and apprehensive. The police are constantly on the watch. It is a time of great uneasiness with all who are responsible for the public.

Owing in part to the disturbed state of affairs here renewed attention has been turned during the week to American investments. The chief stocks to experience an advance were Illinois, Lake Shore, Atlantic, Mississippi and [illegible] and New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio first mortgages, the last named owing to rumors of coming dividends to be paid partly in cash and partly in stock. Apart from speculative stocks everything good finds eager buyers, and what is bought is held very firmly.

There is I am enabled to say no truth whatever in the reported withdrawal of Sir Edward Thornton in Washington, who in fact is likely long to remain the dean of the diplomatic corps. His conduct there has always given the greatest satisfaction to all the successive administrations under which he has acted.

It is possible that the marquis of Ripon, viceroy of India, will recover his health, but he will certainly have to leave the east. He has caught the jungle fever, after an attack of which a man may live, but of Lord Ripon's age cannot possibly hope to get well so long as he remains in India. If he is compelled to return it is supposed that the earl of Dufferin, now ambassador to the court of St. Petersburg, will be asked to succeed him.

[illegible] had a long and interesting conversation today with Thomas O'Connor, M. P., who has just returned to London from a very successful tour of the provinces, during which he delivered many lectures on the present condition of affairs in Ireland and the aims and objects of the land league, very much in the line of his graphic and able [illegible] in the last number of the Contemporary Review. [illegible] said to me that he believed the situation in Ireland was most grave and threatening and that a bloody Christmas was not at all improbable. In his opinion the greatest danger was apprehended in the west, where every male is armed to the teeth and where all have revolvers, many rifles of the most approved pattern and no inconsiderable quantity of both kinds of weapons. I had been assured, he said, that Fenian agents were at work among the people, but he denied emphatically that the people were organizing and said that he [illegible] a [illegible] utterly foolish uprising was highly improbable. Further, the success so far of the land league was [illegible] a [illegible] along the line, makes a Fenian movement entirely needless.

Captain Boycott, whose trials and tribulations at Lough Mask have formed the [illegible] of many columns of dispatches and given rise to the amply descriptive term "boycotting," has been taken up and made much of in London by Captain [illegible] and the "tylingers" with the intention of making all the capital possible out of his grievances and of Gladstone's refusal to give him compensation for the damage he has sustained by his compulsory removal from Ireland. I understand that the arrest of Michael Davitt, Mr. Parnell's able lieutenant, who only recently returned from his trip to America has been determined on and the warrant will issue immediately. [illegible] of [illegible] are [illegible] greeting this evening their victory of yesterday. During the day nothing was talked of but the attack on the land leaguers and their subsequent dispersion. In the evening the enthusiasm took a more tangible form, and the leading spirits [illegible] the action of their English cousins in effigy amid the wildest excitement.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—A most profound sensation was caused today in London as well as in Dublin by the news that the privy council, at its meeting at the castle last evening, has proclaimed against the land meeting only in Queen's county. The privy councillors share O'Connor's fears of a bloody Christmas, evidently, so I am informed, and their action was based on a dread of the results that might follow the Cahirhill meetings, notice of which was posted this morning. To enforce the council decree a force of 1500 troops, 800 from the Curragh and 700 from Dublin, was dispatched during the night. As a result three meetings which were to have been held today were abandoned without attempt at resistance.

Capt. Boycott. [illegible] Boycotting Gladstone and various steps in the process are watched with equal anxiety by both liberals and tories. Gladstone's only reference in his last answer to [illegible] as to what the government had already done for the captain [illegible] and the [illegible] made by the government [illegible] entire [illegible]. The Santa Rosa Murder.

SANTA ROSA, Dec. 19.—Evidence before a coroner's jury in the Mattern [illegible] showed today [illegible] the murder was most diabolical and [illegible]. Mr. [illegible], the only witness to the killing, and who testified yesterday that it was done [illegible] defense, was again put upon the stand today, and made an entirely different statement, admitting that he swore falsely in many important particulars in the first instance, and that he had been [illegible] by the Quackenbushes, father and son, as to what he should say. The court directed the arrest of old man Quackenbush, and he is now in jail. Great indignation prevails in the community, and some fears are entertained of assault upon the jail. The sheriff feels fully able, however, to protect his prisoners.

There is a young man at Walla Walla only 14 years of age, but who has attained the height of 7 feet [illegible] inches.

[illegible] shipping [illegible] to Victoria [illegible] shipments are made twice a week. Five cents a pound, live weight, is paid for them.

The shares of the Seattle & Walla Walla railroad have at length fallen in, but about sixty. About thirty cents on the dollar is what will be paid those holding these shares after the indebtedness of the company has been paid.

Wm. Mitchell, superintendent of the O. & T. R. R., met with a serious accident Friday while crossing the river. It seems he was putting some handspikes when the axe glanced, striking his left foot on the instep, cutting almost through [illegible]. He was immediately taken to [illegible] for medical treatment.

CONGRESSIONAL.

House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. [illegible].—[illegible]

[illegible] If this [illegible] a winning [illegible] caste. He [illegible] which would drive a poor man, by his isolation and want, to all human sympathy, to such measures. A [illegible] was now [illegible] said institution, and he hoped [illegible] would be [illegible] to become again the pride and glory of the country. He had merely wished to express his indignation, and he would withdraw the amendment.

The committee rose and reported the bill, which passed as it came from the committee.

The house then went into committee on the consular bill, which appropriates $[illegible], an increase of $[illegible] over last year.

[illegible] referred to the great importance attached [illegible] the consular service [illegible] and the small [illegible] of salaries paid consuls. New markets were opened through the [illegible] of these officers [illegible] the [illegible] of the country showed the [illegible] were not allowed to be bought in England. American people could manufacture ships against the world and they were going to do it if it were not for the continual threat made in this house that people should go and buy free ships, and there is danger [illegible] establishment of American ship yards. Ships could be manufactured here cheaper and better than they were to-day, and to-day they were the finest ships in the world. The people had been [illegible] the gentleman from Mississippi (Singleton) that [illegible] [illegible] propose to introduce it, but to close [illegible] [illegible] the subject of free ships. He [illegible] the [illegible] appropriations for [illegible] salaries of consular officers, which [illegible] forth earnestly [illegible] from [illegible] that he regretted that Conger had not been [illegible] secretary of state instead of [illegible] Evarts.

[illegible] that [illegible] a [illegible] while he had almost said malicious attack on the diplomatic and consular system had been made by the democratic side.

Sparks asserted that though attempts had been made to trim the diplomatic service no attack had ever been made on the consular service.

Morse, a member of the appropriations committee, said that in the bill an honest attempt had been made by the secretary of state and committee on appropriations to meet the growing wants of commerce, it is the real and fundamental effort, but a fair one on a basis of present appropriations. There were several points where he would cheerfully have voted to increase consular salaries, but still he considered the bill a good one. One difficulty in reorganizing the service this winter was that all necessary information on the subject was in the possession of the secretary of state, and that officer did not think it expedient at present to go into the business of reorganizing the whole consular service.

Hubbell favored encouragement by subsidies such as other nations gave.

Springer and Holman had a spirited passage of words as to whether prosperity was brought about by the republican or democratic party. Debate ran into the tariff [illegible] and while Springer acknowledged that the democrats had during their ascendancy [illegible] changed repeal acts of laws only in taking the tariff off quinine, Kelley asserted that the tariff was higher than before the tariff was removed.

The committee rose and the house voted on the bill, resulting 140 yeas, [illegible] nays. [illegible] adjourned.

"THE OREGONIAN."

[From the Yamhill Reporter.]

We should not have noticed last week the [illegible] birthday of THE OREGONIAN, [illegible] The old pioneer is [illegible] of Oregon's history and progress, and its services [illegible] all these years has placed it in the hearts of the people as a friend and [illegible]. Were it not for THE OREGONIAN [illegible] we would be at a loss [illegible] for the [illegible] daily [illegible]. We could read it [illegible] [illegible] whether it be a desirable newspaper [illegible].

[From the [illegible] Sentinel.]

[illegible] is now thirty years old and refers [illegible] of the state as the only survivors of the early period of journalism in Oregon. It is strange that the journals of the extreme northern and southern portions of the state should alone have weathered it through, but the fact substantiates the Darwinian theory which asserts only the survival of the fittest.

[From the Dalles Mountaineer.]

THE OREGONIAN arrived at this age on Tuesday of last week. Its old publisher, Mr. Pittock, still successfully manages the financial department, and to [illegible] ability it owes the greater portion of its prestige [illegible] It is an excellent newspaper and well deserves the success it has achieved during all this time.

Fruits of "Protection."

[From the Chicago Times.]

Wages were higher here than in Europe before the protective system was inaugurated, as Daniel Webster had occasion to remark in opposing a protective tariff. That a protective tariff enriches one citizen at the expense of another, has killed our carrying trade, compels honest merchants to compete with merchants who smuggle their goods, and closes foreign markets to our wares, are also patent to every one who uses his eyes in observing current affairs. It is a plain historical fact that, instead of our tariff creating our manufactures, our manufactures created our tariff.

The Bernhardt manager reports that the sum realized in the New York engagement, which has just closed, was $109,000. The largest audiences were attracted by "Frou Frou" and "Camille."

"In choosing a wife," says an exchange, "be governed by her chin." The worst of it is that, after having chosen a wife, one is apt to keep on being governed in the same way.

Catarrhal
POISON

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and many constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Bronchitis, Leucorrhœa, and Consumption.

5. That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations, and Insoluble Snuffs cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:

A real cure for this terrible malady, is the most important discovery for the relief of human suffering, since vaccination. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is sold by all Druggists, or delivered by D. B. DEWEY & Co., 46 Dey St., N. Y. for $1.50 a package. To Clubs, six packages for $7.50. [illegible]

In [illegible] trade of the world [illegible] the United States has now [illegible] with many [illegible] The [illegible] has sunk [illegible] carrying trade may [illegible] that in 1856 over 75 per cent of [illegible] total value of the imports and exports was carried in American vessels while last year but 17 per cent was carried in such vessels though the total volume of commerce has risen from a value of $724,000,000 to over $1,500,000,000.

Proper remedies for this state of things the secretary does not discuss with any courage or vigor. He contents himself simply with stating the facts and with remarking in a general way that the only method available of increasing our tonnage is either to allow American citizens the privilege of purchasing vessels of foreign build, to give a bounty on home built vessels or to await the increase of American built vessels and their tardy substitution in foreign trade for those of other nationalities. For the last of these suggestions it may be said that we have been waiting many years and that the longer we wait the less shipping we have. For the second there is a just repugnance to giving bounties for ship building, as there is no reason why one industry should be fostered more than another at the expense of the treasury. For the first it is the sensible thing to do. Allow American citizens to buy vessels of foreign build and get a share of the profits of the carrying trade. And finally let the protective policy which has destroyed American ship-building be abandoned as soon as [illegible].

Ten years [illegible] entrance [illegible] the mouth of the Columbia river [illegible] the [illegible] just below Fort Town [illegible] there [illegible] which are [illegible] the danger of the Columbia bar, that ships will were known at the entrance of the finest body of water in the world. If comparison of marine losses proves anything it proves that the entrance of the Columbia river is at least as safe as that of Puget sound.

Congress is rather dull. The unterrified majority of the extra session has let go of all the "great principles" it battled for and is tame enough.

ONE INSTANCE OF MANY.

The following paragraph is from the Tacoma Ledger of last week:

We have read numerous telegrams in eastern and Pacific coast newspapers concerning the formation of the syndicate to build the Northern Pacific railroad [illegible] the report in THE OREGONIAN was the only one that made any allusion to building the road from the east to Ainsworth and thence down the Columbia river to Portland and ignoring the Cascade division. The question is where did THE OREGONIAN obtain its information that the contract did not include building the road to Puget sound and what caused it to suppress the regular press dispatch on the subject, substituting therefor an editorial misstating the facts?

We hardly need to say that this, in so far as it relates to THE OREGONIAN, is gratuitous misstatement. We reprint it as a specimen of what is continually appearing in local weekly papers north and south of us. Several of these papers are given up to a ruling insanity upon every subject which relates to or bears upon the position of Portland present or future in the development of the northwest. Their chief employment is that of carping or railing at this journal as a medium of news and opinion on whatever relates to this development. It is a fact, of course, that concentration of enterprise and capital is rapidly making Portland the commercial entrepot of the northwest even more completely and securely than heretofore. This ought to be apparent to every person who has his eyes open. But whenever THE OREGONIAN prints anything that rests on this basis of assured fact the local weekly papers up and down this country for three or four hundred miles resent it as an injury or outrage upon their own localities and essay it to meet it with misstatement or vituperation.

Referring particularly to what is said by the Tacoma paper—and we take this notice of it because the statement is a specimen of like things said by many other papers of its kind—we remark that THE OREGONIAN did not profess to have information that the Northern Pacific undertaking as recently formed in New York, did not include the building of the road to Puget Sound nor did it suppress any press dispatch on the subject, nor substitute any editorial for such dispatch. This is one of those numerous instances above alluded to in which the narrowness of a local village paper makes it positively silly. The first information received on this coast about the Northern Pacific syndicate was obtained through private dispatches sent to Portland from New York by Mr. Henry Villard. This information coming to our knowledge was made the basis of an article in THE OREGONIAN of November 22. The first information which the press had of the details was contained in a long press dispatch sent from New York one week later which dispatch appeared in our columns Nov. 30. This gave the names of parties to the syndicate and various information relating to its formation and the scope of the plan. Again on the 21 December another extended press dispatch appeared in this paper which gave more news about the syndicate and its objects, closing as follows:

MELLIS BROS. & CO.'S EXHIBITION.

We confidently direct attention to the advertisement of Mellis Bros. & Co. in this morning's issue. Their opening exhibition on Friday evening and Saturday attracted the largest concourse of people that Portland has seen for many a day and the universal expression was one of admiration and delight. Their immense establishment, beautifully decked in gay colors, the attractive display of new and elegant articles of ornament and amusement, the brilliant lights and the interested throng presented a sight which will long be remembered by those who participated on the occasion. From now until Christmas they will devote their special attention to supplying presents to Portland at reasonable rates. In Christmas laces, silks and fancy dry goods they make special offerings which the ladies will doubtless appreciate.

OREGON STATE DIRECTORY.—The printing of the new directory has been pushed on rapidly within the past week and it now goes to the binder. The publishers have spared no pains or expense in making the work as complete as possible. The book will contain nearly two hundred pages more than has been promised. It will be something more than a new directory as it contains many articles of special interest, among which is a carefully prepared abstract of that portion of the last census that relates to Oregon, with tables showing the growth of the state by counties in population, resources and wealth during the last ten years. This article has been prepared at great expense by H. F. Suksdorf, Esq., the census marshal of Oregon. The advertising patronage of the new directory has been unprecedented, and in itself makes a fine showing of the business, growth and enterprise of our city and state. It is a book that will attract attention at home and abroad, for there is not a line of business, manufacturing or mercantile, that will not be fully set forth in carefully written descriptions.

"Papa, do take me down town to Beck & Waldman's and get me one of those pretty suits." This is the cry of every small boy who has occasion to pass B. & W.'s. Fond parents cannot make their boys happier than by buying them a suit. Men's and boys' overcoats a specialty at this house.

Don't ask your friends for money and take the chances of being refused, but go straight to Uncle Myers, 181 First street, private entrance on Yamhill street.

[illegible]

The Question of the Holiday Recess

[illegible]

It is learned that an effort will [illegible] made in the house [illegible] Monday [illegible] pass the [illegible] bill [illegible] must [illegible] with [illegible] debate. Burrows of Michigan has charge of the bill and [illegible] make the [illegible] with a strong pressure [illegible] in favor of the measure [illegible] behind it as its [illegible]

Representative Berry as a result of [illegible] with members of the public lands commission is satisfied that he will obtain a favorable report for his [illegible] the public [illegible] the [illegible] of land withdrawn for the Oregon and California Railroad Company [illegible]

The army appropriation bill which is nearly completed by the house sub committee will [illegible] materially from that of last year. [illegible] appropriations on the basis of an army of 5,000 men and according to the present intention will not propose any legislation for a reduction or reorganization.

It is to have reported [illegible] that the vacancies on Gen. Sherman's staff [illegible] by the death of Col. Audenreid and the promotion of Col. McCook will be filled by the appointment of Lieut. Col. Dodge of the [illegible] infantry, and Maj. Tidball of the 2d artillery.

A rumor was current at the capitol to-day that Gen Grant has been tendered the presidency of the Adams Express Company but several of his intimate friends say that they know nothing of it.

The threatened opposition to the confirmation of Judge Woods as Justice Strong's successor on the supreme bench seems likely to dwindle to small proportions. The Star this evening cogently remarks on this subject, that the people who alternately crack jokes and grumble about Ohio in connection with the organization of the supreme court must either smile upon Judge Woods or let go their hold on chief justice Waite and justice Swayne as available material to work with. It says that although a native of Ohio, Judge Woods has been a resident and a citizen of a southern state for more than fifteen years. On the other hand although appointed from Ohio Judge Waite is a native of Connecticut while Judge Swayne was born in Virginia. Clearly all three cannot properly be charged to the Buckeye state in the office holding and office seeking sense of that term.

All the members to-day received a pamphlet signed Henry Day and dated Fairview N. J. [illegible] inst, arguing that Gen. Garfield is ineligible for the presidency because he failed to take out naturalization papers after making a trip to Europe. The writer holds that any person who goes out of the country must be naturalized to regain his citizenship. This astonishing document by reason of its intense gravity and apparent sincerity of conviction creates some amusement. Scores of similar monomaniacal productions are, however received by congressmen each session.

The electoral vote of California was delivered to vice-president Wheeler to-day by the venerable Stephen Cooper of Colusa county a member and special messenger of the electoral college who in spite his eighty four years came on alone across the continent for that purpose and appeared at the capitol this afternoon as hearty hale and fresh as most men born after the close of the war of 1812 in which he participated.

Trouble with Students at Moscow.

MOSCOW Dec 18.—Between 300 and 400 medical students assembled yesterday in the [illegible] of the university seeking an explanation with [illegible] concerning a misunderstanding with two professors. The rector proceeded to the residence of the governor general and the chief of police went to the university and ordered the students to disperse. This they refused and a serious conflict with the police and gendarmes ensued. All the students were arrested and escorted through the city to the house of detention.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast, IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female including diseases caused by the FOLLIES OF YOUTH, such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blasted until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh Bronchitis [illegible] Diseases Skin Diseases Rheumatism [illegible] Diseases [illegible] Stomach and Bladder he can cure without fail.

Treats all Chronic and Special Diseases

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM THE effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A M. Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5. Call or address
